W. B. LAWRENCE, PROMINENT CITIZEN, DIES IN MILLBRAE HOME

Superintendent of S. V. W. Co. Victim Of Heart Attack

Hundreds of sorrowing friends from all parts of the state gathered in St. Mathew's Episcopal church in Burlingame last Wednesday to pay their last respects to W. B. Lawrence, superintendent of the Spring Valley Water Co., who passed away suddenly at his Millbrae home on Monday. The deceased was one of the county's most prominent and most popular citizens, and his sudden passing came as a shock to the whole bay region, where he was born, raised and had spent his life in worth while work.

The end came to Mr. Lawrence while he was seated with his wife in the dining room of their home in Millbrae. He had been ill for some time, but had no intimation that his death was so near. Death was caused by an attack of heartfailure, and was said to have been instantaneous by Dr. W. C. Chidester, who was immediately summoned.

The son, of William B. Lawrence, one of the pioneers of the county, and at one time supervisor, W. B. Lawrence was born in San Mateo, and spent his whole life in this county. He, like his father, who was one of the founders of the Times-Gazette, always took an active part in the affairs of the county, and was one of the bright lights in the political firmament for many years. He also served as supervisor at one time. In this capacity he served a term and a half, when he was forced to resign because of business.

W. B. Lawrence was an important factor in the service of the Spring Valley Water Company for the past forty years. He entered the company's service at the age of 19 and upon the death of his father was chosen to succeed him as superintendent of the company, a position which he has filled creditably, both to himself and to the company, since that time.

The deceased is survived by his widow, Mrs. Emma Lawrence, a son, William Beverly Lawrence, and a daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Evelyn, and four sisters, Mrs. Morris Cooper of this city, and Mrs. Loftie Goodspeed, Mrs. E. A. Green and Mrs. Mable Cunningham.

Out of respect to the memory of the deceased, and the services which he had rendered the county, the flag at the court house was flown at half-mast for three days this week.

POST OFFCE ROW SPLITS SAN CARLOS

San Carlos, the town which distinguished itself for the energetic manner in which it carried on a trustee election a short time ago, has won further fame and publicity this week by securing for itself a post office row, which bid fair for a time to split the town. In fact, even now things have quieted down some what, some of the citizens of the little town refuse to buy their stamps or get their mail at the San Carlos postoffice, it is reported.

The whole affair started when Mrs. Mary K. Davis, newly appointed postmistress, moved the postoffice from the S. P. station, where it had been maintained by John Cowgill, retiring postmaster, to her store farther down the highway.

In a post office of this class the postmaster, must buy his own boxes. Consequently Cowgill offered to sell Mrs. Davis the boxes which he had been using. She decided, however, that she could buy boxes for less in San Francisco, and refused to take them. So it happened that for a while San Carlos had two postoffices, one in the station where the mail was distributed into the boxes, the other in Mrs. Davis' store, where stamps were sold and other functions of the postoffice performed.

Some of the citizens of San Carlos claiming that the removal of the postoffice to the more distant location is causing a hardship upon them, have written to Congressman Arthur M. Free.

Legion Preparing For Turkey Shoot

Major Armstrong of the local Legion Post is seeking volunteer workers to dig pits and put up targets tomorrow in preparation for a big turkey shoot which will be staged by the American Legion on November 22. A good location has been secured on the Hooper ranch near Woodside, and a committee headed by Major Armstrong and consisting of Frank Glebman, Charea Oleson, Vic Hildebrant and Charles Ward is busy making preparations for the big event.

The crew which will work tomorrow is asked to meet at the fire house at 8 o'clock. Instructions issued by the committee are in part as follows:

"Bring your lunch, and if necessary the wife and babies. Women and children can enjoy the beautiful view while the men work, so everyone should be happy. If you can't get up by eight, follow out Jefferson avenue and continue up the Hooper road untill you come to the place."

It is hoped by the committee that a permanent rifle club may be organized. This will be thrown open to the public after the first of the year. Money raised by the turkey shoot this month will go toward paying the expenses of the organization.

OLD HOMESTEAD RESIDENT DIES IN SAN MATEO

One of the oldest residents of the Homestead, near San Mateo, died Sunday afternoon last, when John F. McCann passed away. McCann came to San Mateo county in the 90's and purchased the Burns' place at the Homestead which has become now valuable property. He was an expert shoemaker and when he came to this state, took over the superintendency of Kast Brothers' factory. He was engaged in the shoe business with his son at San Mateo when death called him.

McCann was very prominent in the politics of the county and was a strong character, and had a wide circle of friends. He was always very active in the Irish movement and took a lively interest in all matters connected with the freedom of Ireland. He was a member of the Elks lodge and the Knights of Columbus at San Mateo. His son, Emmett, was a student at Sat. Patrick's seminary for years and afterwards went to the Catholic Seminary at North Carolina at which place he is now attending. It was the great hope and inspiration of the father to see his son ordained a priest. His two sons were with him at the time of his death.

The deceased sold his valuable property at the Homestead over a year ago and practically retired from business. The property has since doubled in value. It was owned years ago by a man named Bruns who coined the phrase, "Take a drink yourself, Casey." Burns was an old character and got his first start at the resort known as Burns' Store on the summit between Halfmoon Bay and San Mateo. He left a large estate and McCann bought the Homestead property from the estate thirty odd years ago for about $4000. The property today could easily sell for $75,000.

The funeral of John McCann took place Wednesday from St. Matthew's Catholic Church and was largely attended by the pioneers of the county.

Large Attendance at Formation Of North Palo Alto Water District

Last Monday night the property owners and others residing at Runnymede, North Palo Alto and Ravenswood, held a large and enthusiastic meeting in the school auditorium to discuss the question of forming a water district for that rich and growing locality. The people demonstrated their interest in this all-important question by filling the hall so there was scarcely standing room when the gathering was called to order by Mr. Converse, chairman of the Ravenswood Chamber of Commerce.

The residents of that locality propose to be the pioneers in securing the Hetch Hetchy water for their community. They are wide awake, for they see in this movement a golden opportuunity to enrich that portion of the county with a splendid supply of water at reasonable rates. If there is anything more than another to attract the home seeker it is a good supply of water. The people there see this, and they are leaving nothing undone to form a district that will insure an abundance and a supply that will satisfy the needs of all.

The Spring Valley Water Company has agreed to furnish the water from the big Hetch Hetchy pipes through which the stream from the Calaveras dam now flow, to the proposed district. Hetch Hetchy will ultimately take over the Spring Valley Company's system when water will come direct from the big dam in the Sierras. Then there will be an abundant supply of pure mountain water.

J. H. Sullivan was the first speaker at the meeting. He told of having met the Spring Valley officials and the guarantee of furnishing the district with water that was given. Mr. Sullivan stressed the proposition of securing the water for fire protection, that with a sufficient supply the present insurance rates would be cut in half. He also gave a graphic description of the manner in which the wells in the Santa Clara valley were being lowered and that in time would become dry. He warned his hearers as to the seriousness of the water question and urged all to think soberly on the matter.

Mr. Balcomb, the Palo Alto engineer, told of the feasibility of establishing the proposed water district.

A Groves, a pioneer nurseryman of Runnymede, proved an eloquent and humorous speaker. He, went over the whole question systematically and during his argument hinted that the incorporation of the whole territory would not be a bad move. He rather favored the proposition so that all utility boards could function under one head. However, he urged the organizing of the proposed water district in order to have plenty of water for all those seeking homes in the locality. He pointed out that with the completion of the Dumbarton bridge there would be a big influx of people to the district and every attraction should be offered to encourage their coming. Mr. Groves predicted a tremendous boom for Ravenswood and vicinity when the long-sought and long-waited for bridge was finished. He was given a rousing cheer as he took his seat.

James T. O'Keefe discussed the legal phase f the proposed water district, the proceedure and the methods to be used in organizing. He predicted that a wonderful development would take place when it became generally known that a district was formed. People from the San Joaquin valley would flock to this favored locality.

Attorney Norman Malcolm, one of the best posted lawyers on municipal law in the state, delivered a long address on the functions and law governing municipalities and the different utilities working under separate heads. He became eloquent in urging the organization of the proposed water district. He said that in a few years the City of Palo Alto would have to organize a similar district. The population was growing at such a rapid rate that supply other than the present would have to be provided. He spoke of the drying up of the wells and declared that the Hetch Hetchy was the only source of supply and he congratulated his hearers in being the pioneers in the movement.

J. H. Stubbe, secretary of the meeting, gave a short talk on the necessity of the proposition.

Mr. Converse, chairman, called for a vote on the proposition of forming a water district and almost a unanimous vote was given the question. At the suggestion of Mrs. Christensen of North Palo Alto, George Kneese was selected as the engineer to cover the ground and aid the committee to be appointed in securing data and information to be reported to a subsequent meeting.

The following committee was then appointed which met immediately and organized by electing J. H. Sullivan, chairman, and J. H. Stubbe, secretary. The committee is as follows: J. H. Sullivan, Collis Steere, A. Groves, L. Wheet, J. H. Stubbe, W. A. Romes, J. A. Cameron, Jas. T. O'Keefe, Chas. Hill, A. Clark, Geo. Cleland, A. L. Reagon, M. Kavanaugh, J. Tobin, W. Towers, J. B. Enright, F. Workman and J. Neifing.

There was a full and complete discussion of the matter, many spirited speeches being made. All were in favor of the proposed district. Even those having good wells favored the proposition as the only solution of the problem of building up the community.

Another rousing meeting will be called by the Runnymede Chamber of Commerce to further discuss the question.

METHODISTS AWAIT DEDICATION OF THEIR CHURCH

Dr. Tully Knoles Will Officiate At Services

Dr. Tully C. Knoles, president of the College of the Pacific, and one of the best known orators of the state, will officiate at the dedication of the new Methodist church building on Brewster street and Broadway tomorrow. Three services have been arranged for the day, and Dr. Knoles will have charge of all three.

In the morning Dr. Knoles will deliver the sermon. Dr. Carl Warner, presiding elder of this district, will also be present and will give the scripture lesson.

The dedicatory service will be at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. For this service a special program has been prepared which will begin with a few opening remarks by the pastor Rev. Harry Owen. The prayer of dedication at this time will be delivered by Dr. Carl Warner, and will be followed by a short address by Dr. George W. White. Dr. White was presiding elder of this district at the time when the local church purchased the land upon which the new building has now been erected.

Louis B. Winiger will act as spokes man for the board of trustees and will present the church to the presiding elder. This presentation will be followed by the dedication by Dr. Knoles. Following this B. E. Myers will sing a solo, "Open the Getas of the Temple."

The dedication of this edifice tomorrow will mark the culmination of a hard and protracted effort by the pastor and his congregation. In successfully carrying through this campaign, Rev. Harry Owen has worked against almost unbelieveable odds, and has brought to a successful completion a project which to most of his friends appeared impossible.

The new building here represents a total investment of more than $35,-00. The auditorium of the little church will have a seating capacity of 220. This may be augmented by throwing open, the sliding doors which divide it from the Sunday school, giving a total seating capacity of 400. The remainder of the building is divided into five class rooms, a parlor, the pastor's study and a kitchen. The latter is fitted with every modern convenience and was given to the church by Mrs. B. E. Myers. In the front of the church auditorium are three large ornamental windows presented to the church by Rev. Harry Owen.

NATIVE SONS' "OLD TIMERS" NIGHT, BIG SUCCESS

The "Old Timers' Night", staged Thursday evening by Redwood City Parlor No. 66 N. S. G. W., went off according to schedule and was a most enjoyable affair. The regular officers presided at the conferring of the initatory degree and then vacated their chairs which were taken by past presidents of the parlor.

Andrew D. Walsh, served as president, Jas. D. Hedge, Junior Past President; Jas. T. O'Keefe 1st Vice; Fred W. Lipman, 2nd Vice; John J. Kelley, 3rd. Vice; Fred W. Glennan, Marshall; D. R. Stafford, Financial secretary; Herman Schaberg, Treasurer; Charles Beeson, Sentinel; Asa E. Hull, George Stafford and Thomas Coates, Trustees.

The old timers in the chairs proceeded to show the younger fellows how the work really should be done and much merriment prevailed. Gene Cerqui, president of Redwood Parlor presented Herman Schaberg with a beautiful painting of a California landscape. Mr. Schaberg is a charter member of the parlor and was for 38 years the treasurer. Mr. Schaberg thanked the members and assured them that he would always treasure the gift.

Judge Roy Griffin in behalf of the members then presented Mr. Cerqui with a fine big perculator, a silver creamer and a silver sugar bowl. Gene responded most feelingly.

Oscar Comper, a past president of Redwood and also of Stanford parlor, who brought down 23 Stanford members from San Francisco, was called upon and talked of old times. Thomas Barrett of the Rincon Parlor delegation, Eugene O'Donnell of Dolores Parlor and Alvin S. Hatch of Seaside Parlor, Halfmoon Bay, were called upon and made interesting talks.

Jas. A. Wilson, Grand Third Vice-President, was present on his official visit and was called upon. Mr. Wilson made a most interesting address and urged the members to renewed activity for the order. Roy W. Cloud, Grand Historiographer, was also called upon and made a talk suitable to the occasion.

Dolores Parlor brought some of its musical talent from San Francisco and the evening was enlivened by their numbers. At the conclusion of the work a raviola feed was put on and thoroughly enjoyed.

Woodside Notes

Many of the ladies of Woodside are interested in the Bazaar to be held by the Redwood City Womans' Club at Odd Fellows Hall on November 14th. Mrs. Gish is chairman of the committee having the bazaar in charge and Mrs. von Savoye has presented the handsome doll, now being exhibited in the window of Peterson's jewelry store, which is to be given away at the bazaar

Floyd Kelley was married on Saturday night to Miss Nancy Barber at Palo Alto. About seventy-five guests were present. The young couple will remain in Palo Alto until the first of the year when they will take up their residence in Woodside.

Most of Woodside's population journeyed to Redwood City on Friday evening to see how this community looks when recorded on the films. The play, "Beauty and the Bad Man" was filmed in part at Woodside and most of us were present on the side lines at the filming and were naturally anxious to see the picture in its completed form.

Mrs. L. C. Burnett has issued invitations to a fancy dress party on Saturday night in honor of her son, Eliot.

The old Westcott property, now owned by Albert Komstoeft, has been leased to Arthur Lewis of San Francisco. Mr. Lewis is a musician of note and plays the viola in the San Francisco smphony orchestra.

Many of the older folks these days fail to distinguish between liberty and license and many of the younger generation are unable to see the difference between a good practical joke and malicious mischief. They take advantage of the liberty of Hallowe'en to effect a destruction of property without excuse and to commit nuisances entirely lacking in humor. If the idea continues to grow, that on Hallowe'en 'any thing goes,' it may become necessary for the property owner to spend that night patrolling his boundaries with a shot gun.

SAN MATEO KIWANIS CLUB TO GET CHARTER TONIGHT

San Mateo will be the Mecca of Kiwanians this evening, when the fourteen Kiwanis Clubs in this district will gather at the Charter presentation of the newly organized Burlingame-San Mateo Kiwanis Club. A delegation from the Redwood City Kiwanis Club, headed by President James D. Hedge, has planned a novel stunt to advertise Redwood City, at the celebration and are hoping to bring home the trophy which has been hung up for the best novelty act staged by a visiting Kiwanis Club.

Burlingame and San Mateo are both live communities but are destine for much greater accomplishments as municipalities with a Kiwanis Club to lead the way in civic activities. It is notable fact that the advent in any city of a local Kiwanis Club is a big step forward towards a better understanding between business men and a knowledge of the value of concerted effort.

The festivities at San Mateo are to be held in the Masonic Temple and will take the form of a dinner and dance with an almost endless variety of musical and vaudeville numbers, following the more formal addresses by Governor Abe Leach, and Wendell Thomas, Lieutenant Governor of Kiwanis in this district.

SEQUOIA LOOSES HARD GAME TO SAN MATEO

The football team of the Sequoia Union High met defeat at the hands of the heavy team of the San Mateo high school in a game played last Saturday in Burlingame. The local boys put up a good fight and at times in the game it looked as though the Sequoia team would be a winner, but the loss of several of the best players who were crippled as the result of two hard games in the past two weeks was too much of a handicap. The team came to defeat with a score of 13 to 0. The game was largely attended and was one of the big games of the season.

WORLD WIDE ADVERTISING

That the best method of increasing their business is to advertise the advantages of California, is the conclusion which has been reached by the Southern Pacific Railroad Company, and they will this year conduct a great advertising campaign to bring people to California. Advertisements will be run in periodicals throughout the world, showing the industrial, climatic, business and many other advantages of California.

There is a constant increase in the number of tourists who remain in the west instead of returning to their homes, according to the officials of the S P. This is shown by the number of tourists who take advantage of the low round trip fares offered by the company, but who, after seeing California, ask for a refund upon the unused part of their tickets.

Advertising of the kind proposed by the Southern Pacific Company, will not only benefit the railroad. It will be a great benefit to the state asa whole. Such advertising represents a new turn in advertising, and is being adopted by a number of large concerns. These great public utility companies realize that whatever benefits the public as a whole will benefit them also. It is a broad-minded type of advertising, for it will do as much to aid every other western railroad as it will the S. P., but it is the broad-minded business which will succeed today, where others will fail.

The fact that most of the really big companies are now turning their advertising to the general improvement of conditions instead of trying to increase their own business at the expense of their competitors, is encouraging. But after all, maybe that is why they are really big companies.

THE WORLD DOES MOVE

In line with the above it is encouraging to see that not only are the big companies realizing more and more their responsibility to the people, but the newspapers are coming to the same conclusion. It's a sure sign that the world is getting better, and it's a safe bet that within a few years the so-called yellow journals will be as extinct as the dodo·

The Southern Newspaper Publishers' Association which held its 23rd convention in Ashville, N. C, a short time ago passed the following resolution:

Recognizing that honest differences of opinion exist, we may vigorously maintain our own position without denouncing others as dishonest and unfair.

Decency should be the guiding star, in the printing of news, editorials, advertising, and all feature articles or illustrations.

Is it fit to print and to be read by my own brother? Should be the test, rather than, will it sell more papers?

Consideration for the unfortunate and for guiltless victims of the faults of others.

No story justifies needless damage to a good reputation nor wanton pain to an innocent.

Respect and tolerance for those of different religious, races and circumstances of life.

Honesty in all dealings, whether with readers advertisers, employees or competitors.

Truth, first, last and always.

It will be a long time before all newspapers come up to this standard, but the majority do now and all will in time. It is the result of an awakened consciousness of the interdependence of every individual upon every other individual. The cave man lived alone and fought everyone else. The really civilized man realizes that the welfare of every man is as important to him as his own. Society has at present reached a stage midway between the two. The awakening of a feeling of responsibility is a sign of progress—the shadow of approaching perfection.

—o—o—o—

WHY WORRY?

It is a long established custom for each to think that his worries are greater than those of any one whom he knows. Inview of this fact the current news reports are a little exasperating, in that they would indicate that no matter how big a man, how important a position he holds, or what he does, he has worries, greater perhaps, than our own. Even the great and glorious war department does not escape in this regard. In fact, we are strongly reminded of a little verse which we learned in childhood:

"The greater fleas have lesser fleas,
That live upon and bite 'em.
These lesser fleas have lesser fleas,
And so ad infinitum.

So we have come to the conclusion that no matter how little or how big a man may be in the scheme of things, he has worries and cares proportionate to his position in the world. This being the case, why worry?

"SUN SPOTS," SPEAKER'S TOPIC AT KIWANIS CLUB

The members of the Redwood City Kiwanis Club were this week entertained by an instructive address by Father Jerome Ricard of Santa Clara University. Father Ricard, better known as the "Padre of the Rains," has made a life study of sun sots and their relation to the weather, and this subject was the topic of his address here this week.

By observing the position of spots on the sun, and by matamatical calculations the Santa Clara priest claims to be able to prognasticate the weather for weeks ahead. Only the spots which occur in the northern hemisphere of the sun, said Father Ricard, affect the weather, and of those only the ones which pass a line from the center of the earth to the center of the sun. The change of the sun spots, and their appearance, are due to the relative position of the earth and other planets. It is Father Ricard's opinion that not only the climatic conditions of the earth, but those of other planets, can be determined by noting its position with reference to the spots appearing on the sun.

The meeting Wednesday was under the chairmanship of Father Kennedy of this city, through whose influence the distinguished priest was secured for the address here.

WATER SUPPLY PLANT BOUGHT FOR ALMSHOUSE

The board of supervisors last Monday let a contract to E. W. Redmond of San Francisco for the construction of a pipe line from the lakes of the Spring Valley Water Co. to the property of the county poor farm. The cost of laying this pipe will be $9,497.80, that being the lowest bid for the work. Other bids were received from Martin Murphy, Guerin Bros., C. B. Cowden, Arthur Greer and Ajax Construction Co.

The purchasing agent was at this time instructed to purchase a pump to pump the water over the hill. This will cost $1,842. When the installation is completed the poor farm will be suplied with running water, as well as with adequate fire protection for the first time.

Cleaning Without Odor by the F. Thomas Proces

Our many years of experience h taught us that it is impossible to perfect cleaning with cheap, inferi methods. That is why we found necessary, to invest nearly $500,0 in the equipment of a plant and t establishment of an expert organiz tion to do the quality of work d manded bp our customers.

With the "F. Thomas Proces we not only remove every parti of dust but we return your garmen without that usual disagreeab smell of gasoline. Every drop gasoline we use in cleaning is red tilled and very highly refined.

NEWS OF MENLO PARK

The members of the Eight Division that was trained at Camp Fremont are preparing to place a substantial memorial on the highway opposite the former camp near Live Oak avenue. It most likely will be a marble statue of a soldier. The memorial will be appropriately inscribed and the ceremony of its dedication will be impressive. This will be a gala day for Menlo Park, as it is planned to have as many soldiers who trained at Camp Fremont here as possible to witness the memorable event. In times to come the old camp site will be a shrine which many soldiers of the Eight Division will come to visit and renew memories of the days of the World war, when they gave up all to follow Old Glory on the battle fields of France. The affair will take place around the first of the year.

James Artino makes a specialty of bobbing hair. He has a department for this purpose for the ladies with a thorough equipment to give entire satisfaction to his numerous patrons. Artino has built up a thriving business in this branch. He is an expert bober and by kind treatment has many patrons among the fair sex.

G. E. Blair has sold a lot on Santa Cruz avenue to E. P. Lillie and another parcel of property on the same avenue to F J. Lurnivall. Mr. Blair is disposing of his interests along that avenue, receiving splendid prices for his holdings.

According to the records of the Pacific Gas and Electric Light Company, Menlo Park and Atherton, is making more progress in the way of population than any other part of the county. During the month of October 2367 feet of gas mains were laid in Menlo Park and 1722 feet at Atherton, making a total of 4089 feet as aginst 9730 feet put down in the entire county. Thus has Menlo Park and Atherton laid forty per cent of the entire amount laid in the county which shows the trend of population down the peninsula.

The death of Mrs. John F. Merrill last Friday at Mills Memorial hospital is a great loss. A woman whom everyone liked and loved for the great good she did, will long live in the memory of the people of the State of California. She was the mother of Fire Commissioner Chas. H. Merrill The latters years of her life were spent in this community, where she devoted her time in doing good and useful things.

For more than two score years she served the community with a wise and tender humanitarianism, counseling the inexperienced and ministering to the unfortunate. Whether it was in helping and directing the activities of the Children's Hospital, the Y. W. C. A. or the Red Cross, her absorption in her work was complete, not centered on herself, but constantly bent on making the world better and happier for her living in it.

Mrs. Merrill's private charities were the secret of her own heart, but the community will not soon forget her shining public service. The example of such a life is a rich inheritance, and the community is better because she has lived.

Several friends of Mrs. Harry Seale of Menlo Park gave her a surprise party Saturday evening. They appeared at her door wearing Hallowe'en costumes and bringing materials for Hallowe'en sports and refreshments.

Mrs. Albert Midgeley gathered the children of her neighborhood Saturday evening for an out-door Hallowe'en party. Games, stunts and refreshments were enjoyed around an open fire by about 40 children.

The people of North Palo Alto are energetic, progressive and far seeing and are building a comunity that will attract the best citizens of the state. A bond election to raise funds to establish a modern sewer system was held there last Tuesday, the vote being 54 for and 14 against the proposition. The amount raised by the election was $25,000 and this will be spent at once to put in a modern system of sewerage. The residents are well supplied with water, electric light and gas and the telephone is in almost every house. The new sewer system will make their utilities complete. Supervisor MacBain has promised more good streets so that the locality will be a good place to live in with all the advantages of the city and none of its drawbacks or disadvantages. Investors and those seeking homes are being attracted to this community with its lovely homes, splendid citizenry and all the comforts of the ideal dwelling in the country. North Palo Alto is less than half a mile from the center of Palo Alto and about one mile from Stanford University. Such an ideal location is certain to grow and prosper. This is the time to buy property there when it is cheap. Don't wait until it soars or skyrockets.

Boyd Braden, the local realty man, is erecting a garage on his property on the highway adjoining the real estate of Frank Caine. The work on the structure has already begun and when finished the building will cost $15,000. The building has been leased to William Hoff of Palo Alto, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Hoff of Menlo Park. The garage is to be erected so that it may be transformed into a theatre at some future time.

The new bank building will be ready for occupancy next month but will not be occupied by the Mercantile Trust Company of Palo Alto until the first of the year.

The late Mrs. Barron in her will bequeathed the tidy sum of $25,000 to St. Patrick's Seminary. It may be used in the construction of new buildings which are needed at the seminary.

Last Saturday evening Dorothy and Evelyn Maloney gave their young friends a Hallowe'en party at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Maloney on Pine street. About thirty little ones were present. Hallowe'en games were played and pranks enjoyed by the guests who came in all sorts of dress. The delightful refreshments served by the clever hostesses were the feature of the evening.

Mark A. McCann has purchased the 27 acres of land in Dumbarton Oaks, just across the highway from Selby Lane from Mr. O'Dea, which he will place on the market at once. The tract is to be known as Harvard. It is choice property and will no doubt find ready sale. The sum of $70,000 was paid for the holding.

Mr. McPherson of the Mission, San Francisco, is about to establish an undertaking parlors here. Menlo Park is so healthy that there is scarcely a death happens and when one does occur it is on account of old age. The new man will have hard slidding, but when the town grows to a population of say forty thousand, he may then build up a thriving business for old age will finally come to all. Nature's toll must be paid.

The rumor that has been rampant in this comunity for some time to the efect that the Timothy Hopkins estate of 280 acres is for sale, or that the sale was consummated may be set at rest for all time. The property is not for sale and may not be disposed for many years to come. This became known this week when a sum of $560,000 was offered for the holding and refused by Mr. Hopkins. It was a cash offer. Should the property ever be subdivided it would be the conecting link between Palo Alto and Menlo Park. The two thriving towns would then becoem united. Some day they may be governed under one head.

J. Felix, son of the chief of police of Atherton, and Mr. O'Neill, are the official garbage men of Atherton, they having been appointed by the trustees of that wide-awake community at a recent meeting. Outside garbage men are not permitted to come within the town limits.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Perry of Atherton, who recently bought the Merrill property on the highway, are erecting a suitable barn on the property to house the racers that will be trained on the tract. Large water tanks are also to be erected together with other buildings. The houses are being put up at the lower end of the thirty acres. The Perry string of horses won many prizes at the several meets throughout the state this year.

LLOYD'S RAH, RAH BOY GETS MERRY HA, HA!

While the biggest thrills of "The Freshman," in which Harold Lloyd is to appear at the Sequoia Theatre next Monday and Tuesday, November 9-10, takes place at a football game, and some of the heartiest laughs are aroused by practise at tackling when Harold substitutes for a dummy, this Pathe picture is not to be classified as a football comedy. Rather it is a college story, being entirely concerned with the adventures that befall a freshman who is a "little you" going to college with "Big I" ambitions.

He throws his heart and soul into the task of winning highest popularity honors, and, in the fond hope that he is achieving his ideal, he does everything that he is told to do, never realizing that his simplicity and sincerity are being taken advantage of by every upper-class bully in the school and that, behind his back, his rah, rah gets the merry ha, ha-

Harold makes speeches, buys ice cream cones, fights for a place on the football team, is host of the Fall Frolic and believes the flattery of every fair co-ed—all in the name of popularity and the truth- But it takes heartace and a tear to make a hero and Harold winds up by saving the day for the college that thought he was its booby prize-

Jobyna Ralston gives leading support to Harold Llyd in the role of Peggy, who, in Harold's darkest hour, gives him the sound advice to "Be yourself-" Brooks Benedict plays the role of the cad, James Anderson is the school's hero, Hazel Keener is the college belle, Pat Harmon, a hard-boiled football coach, and Joe Harrington, a tailor, whose chronic dizzy spells are responsible for one of the funniest sequences in the film.

RIN-TIN-TIN FIGHTS USE OF MAKEUP IN PICTURES

Wonder Dog Rebels at the Mud That Won't Come Off.

Actors, both of stage and screen, are accustomed to the use of certain amount of cosmetics to accentuate their features. Rin-Tin-Tin, however, the dog star of "Below the Line," the Warner Bros. Classic of the screen coming to the Sequoia Theatre next Wednesday and Thursday, Nov. 11 and12, reverses the customary order of the rule.

Ordinarily powders, grease, paints and lip rouge are used for beautifying purposes; but Rinty was plastered all over with rich, sticky mud to mar his sleekness. This is due to the fact that "Below the Line" is a story of mountaineers, built around typical mountain people and their poverty. Rinty's glossy, well-kept coat was rather out of place with the tatters of the humans who make up the supporting cast, which explains the mud used to make him also look unkempt.

Rinty has been an aristocratic animal for so long a period that he cannot seem to grow accustomed to mud, even for the sake of his art. Nevertheless, after the first few days, he suffered in silence although if he were consulted, it is certain that he would admit a preference for working "au naturel."

In "Below the Line," he appears as a pit-fighting dog in a Southern town. At the climax of the picture he has a sensational fight with a pack of bloodhounds in an effort to save the lives of the hero and heroine (John Harron and June Marolwe.)

The picture was directed by Herman Raymaker, who directed the last Rin-Tin-Tin success, "Tracked in the Snow Country." The scenario was by Charles Logue.

Motorists who have reveled in the beauties of the Skyline boulevard as they have motored southward over the San Mateo hills have even greater thrills awaiting them. A new section of the boulevard, the unit from the Kings Mountain road to the La Honda road, has been completed and will be thrown open to the public within the next few weeks.

If the section of this wonderful drive already open is beautiful, the new unit is ever more beautiful. It penetrates a heavily timbered area of virgin forest with dense growths of oak, madrone, pine and redwood. The latter, while not of the great size found in some localities, are beautiful trees which will thrill every lover of the out-of-doors.

There are places where the wide, easy grade emerges from the trees to spread before the motorist a great panorama of coast and pounding surf to the westward, while to the east, one gazes out over the fertile Santa Clara valley with its fruitful orchards and prosperous cities and towns. The Bay of San Francisco is visible from its southern most tip to Goat Island. In the foreground the tiled roofs of Stanford catch the eye and across the bay stand for the Alameda hills. Truly, it is an inspiring view.

The new unit soon to be opened to traffic is approximately six miles in length, bringing the total mileage of graded and surfaced highway on the Skyline route to 33.32 miles. To date, 1,104,424 cubic yards of excavation have been moved in grading this thirty-three miles on the high standards which obtain on this road. The cost to the state in round figures, including engineering, guard rails, and other incidentals, has been about $1,300,000.

DAMAGE SUT FILED BY S. S. F. TRUSTEES

The political pot of South San Francisco has again boiled over with the result that three slander suits were filed this week in the Superior court here demanding damages totaling $185,000. The siuts were filed by Mayor H. F. McNellis and Trustees Hugh McGaffrey and Carl Bank. The defendants named in the action are Dave W. Ratto and John Costa.

The suits are the outcome of an attempt made by the defendants to have the three trustees recalled. Ratto is chairman of the Italian American Citizens' Club, which was active in circulation of the recall petition following the dismissal from service of Chief of Police Louis Belloni.

All three of the suits charge that the two men have been making slanderous statement concerning the three trustees. This is denied by the two defendants, who have continued the circulation of the recall petitions.

COUNTY VOTES AID FOR BOTTLENECK BREAKING

San Mateo county will aid to the extent of $50,000, the attempt being made to break the bottle neck, that treacherously narrow and crowder strip of highway in the northern end of the county, where traffic gathers in congested lines each week end. The decision was made by the board of Supervisors last Monday, following the report of Supervisor T. L. Hickey, on a meeting held in San Francisco last Friday which was attended by himself and Supervisor Rosalie M. Brown and other members of the committee which has been working on the proposition.

It is the plan of the committee to widen the highway by having the tracks of the Market Street Railroad removed from their present position beside the highway to parallel the tracks of the Southern Pacific Co. on the S. P. right of way.

Another "Bull" Durham advertisement by Will Rogers, Ziegfeld Follies and screen star, and leading American humorist. More coming. Watch for them.

Who Won the War?

England and France, smoking ready made Cigarettes fought two and a half years and couldn't make the first down on Germany. Germany smoking old tow lines off Ships, Sawdust, Cabbage leaves, Horse Blankets, and second hand Gun Powder couldn't make the grade. But when Americans arrived with no equipment and no training, but plenty "Bull" Durham, and Nerve to burn it with, in Two weeks the French were trading Legion of Honor Medals for a sack of "Bull." One sack was worth two quarts of Iron Crosses. Englishmen have even been known to sacrifice their afternoon tea for a puff of "Bull" Durham. Even after the war an American private, occupying the Ruhr, went into a German Restaurant and asked for a glass of Milk. He couldn't make the Waiter understand so he drew the Picture of a Cow, and a Milk Pail. The Waiter immediately returned with a Bucket of Beer and a Sack of "Bull" Durham Tobacco. That Private was a better Artist than he thought he was.
